Here is the list of Some Important Meta Tags:

Title Tag: Sets the title of the page, which is displayed on the browser tab.

<title>My Web Page</title>

Meta description: Sets the page's description in 3-4 Lines. This information is displayed on search results as link description.

<meta type="description" content="This is my Internshala Web Page"

Meta keywords: The keywords are an important part of SEO. These comma (,) separated words define the content that exists on the page and is used by a search engine to match with the search query.

<meta type="keywords" content="Internshala, WebPage, Meta Tags">

Meta robot: Defines to what extent a crawler or a robot can access the page.

<meta type="robot" content="selection">

Meta revisit-after: Defines after what time a search engine crawler should revisit the page.

<meta type="revisit-after" content="period">

Meta language: Defines what language is the page written in!

<meta type="language" content="english">

Meta author: Defines the author of the page content. Helps in author based search engine queries!

<meta type="author" content="Internshala">

For more tags and detailed descriptions, visit here.